

Summer, Sun, AIKIDO !!!

Meanwhile, in the 15th year;

the very special kind of AIKIDO - Camp

Saturday 24. July to Saturday 31. July 2010

Who does not know him yet, has missed something for sure. Olivier Pascal is 27 July to 31 July once again make for a wonderful atmosphere for entertaining and top-class training. He himself says:

"I have been trained in many DOJO in the world with good atmosphere and interesting frame.

However, this DOJO is unique and robs me almost the senses! "

In Pardailho, a small southern French mountain village, 35 km from the Mediterranean coast and about 80 km to the Spanish border. On a southern slope terrain with magnificent views of the Pyrenees and the Mediterranean we are created extraordinary training opportunities, to the infinite variety of tourist attractions in the southern French Mediterranean, combined with can be. from of seclusion in a pristine mountain landscape to tourism Total, and each can to within one hour drive will find almost everything that heart can wish for.

There is plenty of space for tent or RV. On the site's electricity and water connection available. Toilets and showers are a special experience! Refrigeration for food are available, such as simple cooking facilities. We do not offer luxury, but the incomparable magic of nature! If you absolutely want to live comfortably, it has limited possibility to rent rooms in the neighborhood, or among the various hotels, even a house.

Dining options come several times a week mobile grocers in the village. In the valley, about 11 km, is Saint Chinian, a small town with Thursday and Sunday market. There are two supermarkets and all other kinds of shops in addition to banks and excellent restaurants.

In Assignan, a neighboring village is the domain of Soulié with arguably the best wine of the area. Guaranteed grown organically and soooo cheap! Mmmhh, and tastes!

Approximately 100 square tatami at our disposal all day. From 27 July in the morning and evening training session will be offered.

A, autumn and spring storms tormented by the Shelter for tatami surface has finally destroyed a storm last spring. Until the completion of our new, permanent DOJO, we will as last time train "open air".
